as it can be done anywhere.

We tender our thanks to Mrs. Dr.

Bryant for a basket of nice apples a present to our "better-half."

The Storm King drove considerable damage in Gentry county, on the night of the Fourth. Quite a number of houses were more or less damaged, and fences, crops, &c., much injured by the high wind.

Judge David Davis, of the United States Supreme Court, who was the choice of the Illinois Democracy for the Presidency, and whose name would have been urged upon the St.

Louis Convention if he had not for-bidden it, declares for Hayes and

On Saturday, the 15th, one might have seen the husbandman, the matron, and the maid, wending their way in the direction of Liggett school house. They seemed to come from all directions; some on horseback carrying baskets and buckets; others in wagons; some on foot carrying well filled baskets.

A person not acquainted with the country would have thought there was some great market to be supplied out in the "bluffs." But if you had accepted a "granger" one that is wide awake, no difference where he came from, north or south, east or west, he would have said, the grangers are going to have a "harvest feast." At any rate, I will follow that way, or if I am not mistaken, I will get one "square" meal when I find the mansions where the harvesters and the grangers are assembled after their days work is done, for all grangers are welcomed to the feast.

Sure enough, there was a grand feast. The tables fairly groined under their load of viands. It would be useless for me to try to describe the different varieties that went to make up the table. There were all the varieties of cake that I have ever heard of, but "poor cake." That we don't have at the grangers' feast. There was the old Stand-by, the Pound cake, Sponge cake, Gold cake, Silver cake, White cake, Fruit cake, and the celebrated "Jennie cake." Pies of all varieties made of the first fruits of the season.

No one would expect a feast complete without the "yaller" legged chicken which we had, from the old

A. E. MCKINNEY,

SOME EXPRESSIONS OF OPINION BY

Leading Democrats.

The reason of our opposition to Tilden is because he is no longer popular in New York, and cannot carry the State against Hayes next November. New York people are tired of Tilden. Tilden can't win in New York.—Augustus

Schell.

You gentlemen out here have no idea how the people of N. Y. feel toward Gov. Tilden. They know that he is false to the Democratic party, and if he is nominated he will lose the State of New York by 50,000 majority.—Ald. J.

Reilly, N. Y. City.

I think he cannot carry New York.

Those who claim that he is unassailable do not know him, or if they do, then they are quite as dishonest as he is. He has been counsel for all the broken-down corruptors with which New York has been afflicted for a long term of years, and out of them he has not come with clean hands.—August Belmont.

I say frankly that the greenback Democrats of Iowa will support Tilden under no circumstances. A capitalist worth $7,000,000, a speculator in railroads and in railroad bonds, who shamelessly expends money and uses the machinery of political corruption to secure his own nomination, in a manner unprecedented even in these times, and who has at the
